

TECHMATIC RECYCLING SERVICES LTD

QUALITY POLICY STATEMENT

Techmatic Recycling Services Ltd. have been involved in the recycling business in Ireland since 1993. The company is located in Kinsealy, Co. Dublin and specialise in the collection, storage and recycling of hardware and software materials for the computer industry. As an active member of the recycling industry Techmatic Recycling Services Ltd. are positively contributing to the area of waste management.

Techmatic Recycling Services Ltd provides a professional recycling and waste management service to customers and regards quality as an integral part of good business practice. Top management is committed to achieving a high standard of Quality performance from company operations.

The staff and management of Techmatic Recycling Services Ltd. are committed to meeting and surpassing the needs of our customers. This commitment will be achieved through meeting the requirements of and the continuous development and improvement of the Quality Management System. This continuous improvement will be achieved through the establishment, meeting and reviewing of objectives.

Whilst all employees have a duty to ensure that Quality is paramount within all activities, the overall responsibility for Quality lies with the Managing Director of Techmatic Recycling Services Ltd

Joe Hand
Managing Director

Date 01-05-2008.

